We end our day with a holy hour at the Church of All Nations in Jerusalem.

Today we explore our Judeo-Christian history by visiting the Israel Museum, tour the Temple Mount and Western "Wailing" Wall. We will also spend time in the Upper Room where Jesus instituted several sacraments. We will draw close to Mary with Mass at Dormition Abbey, likely site of her final home, and at her birthplace, St. Anne's and reflect by the Pool of Bethesda.

Tuesday, January 28

We begin with Mass on Calvary at Church of the Holy Sepulcher. We make our way to the Tomb of the Blessed Virgin Mary and observe the ancient olive trees in the Garden of Gethsemane. A rosary walk through the Kidron Valley will lead us to Caiaphas' home, (now St. Peter Galicantu) and contemplation in the cistern where Jesus spent his last night.

Fr. Brian Schieber, Pastor, St. Michael the Archangel Catholic Parish, invites you travel with him to Israel, a land rich in religious history, a confluence of faiths and sacred to so many.
